

Jerusalem, November 1, 2016.

The Mensch Foundation is proud to announce the selection of United Hatzalah as the Mensch “Volunteer organization of the year”.

The selection is based on United Hatzalah's outstanding working dynamics that integrate tolerance, mutual respect and integrity, while bridging religious, political and cultural barriers while empowering minorities. United Hatzalah's organizational leadership and practical application manifest the mission of the Mensch Foundation, by incorporating and promoting value driven decision-making in the workplace and reducing societal rifts in order to foster unity in Israeli society.

About Be A Mensch

The “Be A Mensch” organization beamensch.com is dedicated to bringing Israeli society together and infusing it with the positive values that are the key to personal and societal success. The “Be A Mensch” organization works towards a responsible, just, considerate, and integrity driven society, collaborating with partners across the social, political and religious spectrum in a variety of programs.

If you want to learn more about what a mensch is please check out our books.

English Book

Hebrew Book

About United Hatzalah

When emergencies occur, rapid medical treatment increases chances of survival exponentially. Using specially equipped motorcycle ambulances, United Hatzalah's network of more than 2,500 volunteer medics help save thousands of lives each year across Israel by providing medical treatment in three minutes or less. Our humanitarian services are free, universal and available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

To learn more visit – <http://israelrescue.org>